Chapter 1 by Astrid

I ran. Harder than I had ever run before. I couldn't be caught, or it would have all been for nothing. Nothing. People would have died in vain. I was too important, I knew too much. and now, they knew. They knew my only weakness. The one that was hidden from everybody.

Chapter 2 by Astrid

There was only one person I had ever cared about. My brother, who was hidden from everybody, because they thought he was unsafe. They believed he was a monster. And maybe he was. But that wasn't his fault, and he had never hurt anybody. But they locked him up, threw away the key. They broke the only string he had to humanity. They killed my brother, and left a monster in his place.

Chapter 3 by Astrid

It was the reason I was here now. Running for my life. Almost out of chances. I'd used up most of my luck. Most of my mistakes. Most of everything, actually.
